FREE PAINTING DEMONSTRATIONS

July 20th-24th - Reception & Awards Wednesday, 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm

Tim Kelly, Local Color Judge, Demo - Wed, July 20, 1:30-3:30 Waterfowl Bldg
2021 Grand Prize Winner Plein Air Easton, Tim Kelly is a lifelong Baltimore resident & Maryland Institute College of Art graduate. Initially an illustrator, in 2007 he began painting from direct observation & has pursued this method since then. He has participated in many plein air events in the Mid Atlantic area, winning numerous awards. Tim's plein air work prioritizes observational fidelity & often has a documentary flavor. Urban themes have been a frequent subject in his oeuvre. In recent years, Tim has added studio & portrait painting to his artistic pursuits as he continues to follow the plein air muse. www.timkellybal.com

Mary Viega, LC Juror, Demo - Wed. July 20, 3:45 - 5:45 Waterfowl Bldg
2nd Place Winner Plein Air Easton 2022, Growing up on beautiful Maryland farmland, Mary naturally drew inspiration from her surroundings. Spending time riding her horse through the striking abundance instilled in her a strong sense of belonging and connection. This inspired her to share her experience through artistic expression from a very young age. Today Mary paints en plein air and in her studio in Baltimore as well as at her weekend home in Tilghman Island Maryland. Participating in juried competitions since 2019 Mary has won many awards including second place in 2021 at Plein Air Easton. www.maryveigastudio.com

Jeff Williams - Thursday, July 21st 1:00 - 3:00 - Christ Church

Jeff Williams is a retired professor of architecture from Oklahoma. For thirty-one years he taught design while simultaneously maintaining an award-winning architectural design consulting practice. In 2017 he retired from teaching to pursue two of his passions, watercolor painting and travel. His plein air paintings have been juried into numerous exhibitions, again receiving various awards. Most recently, Williams' painting Another Beautiful Day in Oxford placed third in Plein Air Easton 2021. www.jeffwilliamswatercolor.com
